

How to Prepare for Your College Advising Appointment

Karsyn Mangel¹

Abstract

This video informs students how to prepare for their appointment with their college academic advisors. It is about understanding the role of one's advisor, the importance of showing up on time, examples of great questions to ask, and why one should stay connected to their advisor. Relating to the Appreciative Education framework, this video can help students feel more disarmed and prepared when meeting with their advisor.
